

WAREHOUSEMEN
AFTER TOBACCO

May Get Cream of the Burley

Agents Are Busy Among the Germans

MONEY LOANED ON BLEDSO

MONEY LOANED ON PLEDGES

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 8.—[Special.]—While the Burley Tobacco Society and the Society of Equity are scrapping between themselves over the form of organization and pledge for a pool for the Surley tobacco crop of 1909. It is currently reported here that the tobacco warehousemen of this city are quietly but actively at work among the growers in an effort to induce them to stay out of both proposed pools and place their tobacco to the sales warehouses to be placed in the open market. It is said that these warehouses already have numerous agents in the field, and that they have already secured promises from a large number of the growers to disregard the proposed pools and send their tobacco here for sale.

Sales Without Delay.

These agents, it is reported, point to the high prices which tobacco now commands, and the readiness with which the new crop can probably be sold next winter at high prices without any of the risk, delay or uncertainty necessarily being associated with the pool, which it may take years to close out. This argument finds ready listeners.

ers among the members of the pools of 1906 and 1907, as it is well known that the independents, or those who were free to sell their tobacco during the period of these pools, were the principal beneficiaries, and this is Anti-Pool Growers Reap Harvest.

While the members of the pools were stinting themselves in many cases for the necessities of life, during the long delay and uncertainty before their tobacco was finally sold, and were risking ruin in their desperate fight with

The withdrawal of the pooled tobacco from the open market had nat-usually made tobacco scarce and high and the crops of the independents therefore, in great demand, and brought tremendous prices in the open market and these growers, untrammelled by any obligation, realized handsomely and

It is true that in many sections the independent growers were in some danger from night riders, but the general impression now is that even if a poor pools be formed; the night rider will not again cut any serious figure having become a thing of the past.

CANDIDATES' NAMES

WILL BE SELECTED

DEMOCRATS TO FRAME LIST FOR ELECTION COMMISSIONER.

BEST POSSIBLE TIMBER TO GO BEFORE STATE BOARD.

LIST OF CLUBS INCREASING.

Within the next day or two, or at least, as soon as Dr. J. R. Collier, chairman of the Democratic City and County Executive Committee, returns from a short sojourn at French Lick Springs, he will call the committee together for the purpose of selecting the names of five persons, which will be recommended to the State Election Commission, from which a Democratic election commissioner for Jefferson county will be chosen for the next year. Fred Forcht, Jr., is the present Democratic member of the Jefferson County Election Commission. A member of the committee said yesterday afternoon that he had no idea what five names would be selected by the committee as he had never discussed the question with any member of the committee. He said all he was interested in was the selection of five good men so that the State commission could make no mistake in selecting a good Democrat and a man who was not afraid to do his duty and stand up for his party rights in the selection of election officers for the election this fall.

The Republican City and County Executive Committee selected five candidates at a meeting last week, headed by Lewis Humphrey, and forwarded the names to Frankfort. As soon as the Republican City and County Executive Committee, but he is now attending to the school board and didn't care to have the place again.

There are some other matters that will be discussed by the Democratic City and County Committee when it meets again. Plans for the campaign will be discussed and reports will be made as to the progress of the campaign. The committee will also consider the organization of clubs and the various precincts throughout the city and county. It is likely the executive committee of the candidates will meet with the committee. The candidates' executive committee has been meeting regularly and has been doing some effective work in the matter of planning for the opening of the campaign. Judge Gregory is chairman of this committee and he is always on hand.

Many Democratic clubs were organized for the city last week with a large membership. This work will continue from now until September. The aim of the leaders is to organize the clubs so that the members will be in closer touch with each other and will not be so far apart. The clubs will be active men are placed at the head of the clubs and good work is being done quietly. All the organization work will be completed by the time the speakers enter the campaign.

Labor of Weeks in Purchasing Coal and Sundries to End With Board's Action.

A special meeting of the Louisville School Board to hear a report from the committee on supplies affecting bids submitted for contracts on various commodities needed in the public schools during the year commencing September 1, will be held to-morrow night. It will be one of the most important meetings the board held in some time, inasmuch as the Trustees are about to lay out a large sum of money for coal, books and sundry articles necessary in the schools under the control of the board.

The supplies committee, of which C. C. Rietz is chairman, met twice during last week, and finally completed the report to be read to-morrow night. The committee has been in the hands of the committee for some time past and has required most careful consideration. Dr. D. W. S. Wilson and A.
J. Domeck are the other two members of the committee.

It is understood that in addition to the report of the committee, Business Director Jones will file a statement touching upon the amount of supplies that will be needed to run the schools of Louisville for the year.

Political Pot Already Sim-

SOMETHING DEFINITE IN CANDI-DATES EXPECTED SOON.

OLD SOLDIERS DISAPPOINTED
BY SLOWNESS OF PENSIONS.

NEWS ITEMS OF INTEREST.

This week will probably see something definite in the way of municipal Democratic politics in Jeffersonville, as a city election is to be held in November to name a complete set of new officials. So far there has not been any talk of holding a convention by either party or of organizing. There is considerable surmising as to what figure the recent local option election will cut, as the Civic League has announced that it intends to take a hand in the election. There is also talk of taking after the election of putting a full ticket in the field with Judge Harry C.
Condit as the Democratic candidate for head of it, but it is not the belief at this time that such action will be taken. The league, however, will show its hand.

Candidates never were more backward in coming out and there is no officially announced aspirant for Mayor on either side. Several have been spoken of in connection with making the race for the office before a Democratic convention. One of these was Frank E. Payne, a former member of the Jeffersonville City Council. When it was said he would probably be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Mayor, his name was received with great favor. It is not known whether he thought he would run, but he will not.
James E. Burke has been spoken of for some time as a probable candidate and has not denied it. He will be John F. Spith's has been referred to in the same way, and Lyman Parks has openly asserted on numerous occasions he was a candidate. Henry F. Dilger was tipped yesterday, but has not officially announced. There are several others spoken of.

TWENTY-THREE
FOREIGN CRIMINALS.

All of Them Are Subject to Deportation at Once.

Twenty-three inmates of the Indiana Reformatory at Jeffersonville are subject to deportation from this country under the Federal laws controlling criminal immigrants. According to a report just completed by Amos W. Butler, secretary of the State Board of Prisons, the twenty-three are: Canada, 4; Sweden, 1; Australia, 1; Russia, 3; Germany, 4; Hungary, 2; Wales, 1; England, 1; Austria, 4; Belgium, 2.

Whether those who compose the foreign criminal list will be deported is not known, but the names will be sent to the Federal Immigration Bureau by Mr. Butler for such action as that department sees fit to take. A similar list is being taken all over the country with a view, as supposed, of getting rid of the undesirable class. The names of the list were assigned to Mr.
Butler by Gov. Thomas R. Marshall.

Look For Pension Money.

A score or more of old soldiers lined up at the general delivery window of the Jeffersonville post-office, where they waited yesterday morning at 9 o'clock.
The veterans had sent their pension checks to last night's register, and they could not wait until Monday to learn whether their pension checks had arrived. Some received the coveted paper, but others did not and they "drilled" away wearing an air of disappointment.

There are thirteen widows of soldiers of the War of 1812 who draw pensions in Indiana. This seemingly impossible fact is accounted for through old men marrying comparatively young women.
There are no survivors of the War of 1812 who draw pensions at least one in the State who were born during that period. There are 111 survivors of the Mexican War living in Indiana who draw pensions at least one of them, Thomas Howard, being a Jeffersonville man.

Taken Home for Trial.

After remaining at the Indiana Reformatory in Jeffersonville for exactly thirteen months, a convict named Swope was taken back to Evansville last night to be given a preliminary hearing on the charge of killing Herbert Kuyper. The prisoner was being sent as a street-car conductor during a strike.

Swope was brought to Jeffersonville by John Houghland, an Evansville detective, and the same officer came attending him yesterday. Houghland said Swope was taken to Evansville in a thought Swope would have but little trouble in securing an acquittal, as the sympathy of the people is entirely with him.

NOTES OF THE NEWS
FROM JEFFERSONVILLE.

Mrs. Ellis Fry, of Louisville, has been brought to the Jeffersonville hospital for treatment of a serious ailment. She is critically ill, but it is believed she is holding her own.

Several carloads of excursionists from Crestedview, Jackson county, will arrive here tomorrow morning on the Evansville route. The excursion is being conducted by the Evansville and Jackson county excursionists will bring with them a brass band.

The monthly meeting of the "Boosters" of the Jeffersonville Commercial Club will be held to-morrow night. The meeting has been postponed from last Tuesday on account of the Chautauqua. A large attendance is expected.

Miss Nettie Weir, who was 35 years old and had a number of relatives in the city, died at the home of her mother, Mrs. Margaret Weir, in Soubatsburg, after a brief illness. Her body was taken to Washington county for burial.

The Rev. Charles I. Truby, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will begin his annual vacation to-day, and says Truby he will go to Indianapolis for a visit with relatives of his wife for several days. He expects to return to his other place.

Rumor still has it that William L.
Carr, of Louisville, has been appointed to head of the Republican campaign

MOTHER'S END COMES BEFORE HER DAUGHTER ARRIVES.

NEW ALBANY NEWS NOTES.

George Riley Fox, aged 58 years, who had a varied career, died at an hour yesterday morning at the home of Archie Walton on the Corydon turnpike, a mile west of New Albany. His illness was dropsy and a complication of diseases from which he suffered for some time. Fox was a native of Georgetown township, and at an early age took an active part in politics as a Democrat. When Cleveland was elected President he was appointed to a position as packer at the United States Quartermaster's office in Jeffersonville. This position, however, was not agreeable to him, and at the solicitation of the then Congressman from the New Albany district Fox was transferred from the War Department to the Post-office Department, and was given a place as mail agent on the Monon railway between New Albany and Chicago. He was efficient and stood in line for promotion, but he got into the gambling habit and lost a lot of money. Soon it was discovered that he was abstracting money from the United States mails, and he was convicted in the Federal Court.

He was sentenced to serve a term of two years in the old State Prison South at Jeffersonville. He served his term, and at his expiration returned to New Albany.
He was a man of engaging personality and soon went into business, conducting a saloon in the vicinity of Georgetown. He was a regular contributor to the church, but his gambling habits objected to the way their boys conducted themselves after coming from his saloon at night, and they closed him up. Of late Mrs. Fox has been doing little or nothing. He was separated from his wife several years ago.
He leaves two children, a son and a daughter. The son, Charles, is a man of considerable natural ability. He asserted, when he was up for robbing the United States mails, that he was led into temptation by his gambling debts and that he intended to pay what he had taken. He came of a respected family.

Death of Mrs. Kneply.

Mrs. Magdalene Kneply, widow of John Kneply, for many years a leading jeweler of New Albany, died of heart failure at her home in Dallas, Texas, at 9:20 o'clock yesterday morning. Mrs. Kneply was 85 years old, having been born in Switzerland, but came to America when quite young. She and her husband were married in New Albany, and lived in the old country, although they never met until they both came to New Albany, where they were married in 1849.

Mr. Kneply, with his son, Lawrence Kneply, left New Albany in 1875 and settled in Dallas, Texas, where he established the largest jewelry business in that city. Both Mr. Kneply and his son Lawrence have passed away and the death of Mrs. Kneply leaves several years ago, the large business enterprise was closed.

Three daughters survived by three daughters—Mrs. F. Tuley, of New Albany; Mrs. R. P. Main, of Greenfield, Ind.; and Mrs. Robert H. Hart, of Fort Worth, Texas. In addition to her grandchildren and five great-grandchildren are left. Mrs. Tuley left at 8:20 yesterday morning for Dallas, Texas, and O. S. W. railway for Dallas, expecting to reach there this evening.
She had been summoned a few hours before on account of the serious illness of her mother, but the news of her death did not reach New Albany until one hour after she had left there.

Funeral of Philip Bence.

The funeral of J. Philip Bence was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bence, 715 East of Market street, New Albany. The large attendance attesting to the high regard in which he was held in the community. The Rev. Dr. Frank Orman Beck, pastor of Trinity Methodist church, conducted the religious service. The music was furnished by the quartet composed of Misses Nell Lemon and Sarah Diehmman. Messrs. Frank Poutch and Charles B. Bence, members of Trinity choir, sang the hymn "Some Time We'll Understand."
"Face to Face" and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus."

DePaul Lodge of Masons directed the services at the grave, the other orders of the city were also present attending the funeral. The pall-bearers, selected from his friends who knew him best and loved him best, were: William Hanger, Jefferson-ville; Engleman, Peter Stein, Joshua Lemmon, Charles Inman, Julian T. Miller, Thomas Hanger, Joseph Banet, John and Frank Beaumont.

Big Crowds at Camp Meeting.

Enormous crowds attended the meeting of the Ohio Falls Association, on the Silver Hills, near New Albany, all day yesterday and last night. The meetings will continue during the remainder of the week, closing next Sunday night. The services were conducted by day and continued until 10 p. m. The Rev. Ora Smith conducted the services at 10:30 o'clock, and there was a service for the children by Mrs.
Orin Smith, in the afternoon. The sermon last night was by the Rev. J. L.
Powers, of Lincoln, Neb.

Snatched at Her Watch.

Patrolmen Gallagher and Hatzell, of the Second police district, arrested Will Nolot, 28 years of age, on Green street, between Ninth and Tenth streets, at 1:50 o'clock yesterday afternoon on a charge of petit larceny.

It is alleged that Nolot, in brushing past Louis Jacob and Jesse Duncan both colored, living at 412 West street, snatched at a watch fastened to a guard on the Jacoba woman's dress. The watch was pulled from the dress, but the watch was suspended from a cord around the woman's neck and was not lost.

Alleged Colored Woman.

The woman followed Nolot, and on encountering Patrolmen Gallagher and Hatzell, caused his arrest. Nolot declines knowing anything about the matter, and the guard was not found upon his person. He lives at Eighteenth and Gallagher streets.

Y. M. I. BEGINS WORK

OF ANNUAL SESSION

MANY MATTERS OF IMPORT-ANCE ON THE PROGRAMME.

NEW LAWS OF THE ORDER MUST BE ENFORCED.

GOOD TIME FOR VISITORS.

The executive sessions of the Young Men's Institute of the Kentucky jurisdiction, in annual convention in Louisiana to-day and to-morrow, will open at 10 o'clock this morning and continue until Tuesday evening, when the business of the convention will have been finished, with the election of officers for the ensuing year.

Kentucky, Tennessee and Missouri are represented by forty delegates in this convention. The headquarters of the organization have been established at the Galt House, and all but ten of the delegates arrived yesterday. The convention opened yesterday morning with solemn high mass at St. Aloysius' church, Baxter avenue and Wayne street. During the day the local members of Trinity and Mackin councils spent the time in preparing for the entertaining of the guests, and committees met the visitors at the trains as they arrived.

According to the reports given out by Daniel D. Kelly, president of Trinity Council, the business sessions will be taken up to a great extent with the revision of the by-laws of this jurisdiction. When the Supreme Council was in session last autumn a number of changes were made in the laws of the order, and it was decided that the new laws should be adopted at the earliest opportunity. Besides this, plans for an active canvass of the members of the order will be made. According to Mr. Kelly, this work has been neglected in the last few years, and the national organization desires that the matter be given attention. The Young Men's Institute has plenty of funds for the work, and in executing the plan to carry out a campaign of the kind, the Young men's election of officers will take place, and then the convention will be over and the business done.

Many inquiries are being received by the Jefferson barbecue committee from Democrats in regard to accommoorder that everybody who desires to survived by his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Fishback, of 1454 South Seventh street. The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

diction, in annual convention in Loui-
until Tuesday evening, when the busi-
for the ensuing year.

with solemn high mass at St
